NARRATIVE:

Maria Aguayo is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. Her convictions include carrying loaded firearm in public place, assault with great bodily injury, vandalism, violation of parole, possession of controlled substances, vehicle theft, petty theft, burglary and terrorist threats with force or violence. She has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 3 year term for terrorist threats with force or violence. Aguayo was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 28, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2015 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Aguayo qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for burglary is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her criminal history, gang member status, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
